

Honey Two!

(The BEES dance in.)

2 BEES:
1-2 Ho - ney, ho - ney, ho - ney!—

4 Ho-ney, ho-ney, ho - ney! Ho-ney, ho-ney, ho - ney!

6 Yeah!

(POOH and PIGLET watch as the BEES dance off.)

PIGLET

I'm not sure Backsons like honey, Pooh.

POOH

Oh.

PIGLET

But everyone likes picnics. Maybe we could make the pit look like a picnic?

POOH

What a clever idea, Piglet.

(#10 – PIGLET'S PICNIC. POOH and PIGLET create the trap, and put up signs saying "BACKSONS WELCOM" and "B.Y.O.H.")

YELLOW

So Pooh and Piglet dug a hole in the ground, covered it with a cloth, and made it look like a picnic.

PIGLET

What does "B.Y.O.H." mean, Pooh?

POOH

"Bring Your Own Honey." Just so they know they're welcome to.

VIOLET

Pooh and Piglet went away and hid, so the Backson wouldn't suspect a trap.

(RABBIT enters.)

RABBIT

Must hide, must hide...

(#11 – RABBIT'S FALL. RABBIT scrambles around, then stops when he sees the picnic.)

Food! Well... I should probably take some provisions. It'll make it easier to hide.

(RABBIT tries to take some food and falls into the trap.)

Help! Help! The Backson's caught me!

(EEYORE enters.)

EEYORE

What are you doing down there, Rabbit?

RABBIT

Help me, Eeyore! The Backson's trapped me! If I don't get out of this trap, he'll come take me away, just like he did Christopher Robin.

EEYORE

Grab my tail. I'll pull you out.

RABBIT

Thank you, Eeyore.

(RABBIT grabs EEYORE's tail, which comes off.)

EEYORE

Now what did you do that for?

RABBIT

I didn't mean to. It just came off in my hand!

EEYORE

Now I'll have to get another one. Probably won't be as good as the last one. They never are.

RABBIT

Wait, Eeyore, don't leave me!

EEYORE

I'll be back. Eventually!

(#12 – TIGGER BOUNCES IN. As EEYORE starts to exit, TIGGER bounces in. He then bounces EEYORE and himself into the trap.)

TIGGER

Hello there! Good to see you, Eeyore.

EEYORE

What's good about it?

RABBIT

Tigger, we're trapped in a Backson trap. Can you bounce out and get help?

TIGGER

Of course I can! If there's one thing Tiggers can do, it's bounce!

(TIGGER bounces. KANGA and ROO come by.)

ROO

Mama, can I bounce with Tigger?

KANGA

Just be careful, dear.

(#13 – ROO'S BOUNCE DOWN. ROO bounces into the trap.)

ROO

Hi, Tigger!

TIGGER

Hi there, Roo!

RABBIT

More animals in this trap is not helping!

TIGGER

The more the merrier, I always say!

KANGA

(peeking into the trap)

Is there a problem?

RABBIT

Kanga, we're trying to get out of the trap.

KANGA

Oh, dear. Why didn't you say that before? Tigger, if you could bounce Roo up to me, maybe I can reach down and help the rest of you up.

(#14 – KANGA'S TUMBLE. TIGGER bounces, causing KANGA to lose her balance and fall into the trap.)

Oh, dear.

(#15 – THE BACKSON SONG – REPRISE.)

The Backson Song (Reprise)

RABBIT: The Backson's bound to catch us now!

1  ALL:

They

4  creep in - to your par - ty and they

5  pop the red bal - loons! The
